BRAZIL.

On the import duties 10 per cent shall be collected in gold, national, or in pounds sterling, at the rate of exchange of 27 pence (54.6 cents) per milreis. The duties are calculated in reis, of which 1,000 equal a milreis. While the gold milreis is valued at 54.6 cents, the paper milreis, the actual currency of Brazil, was valued in April, 1899, at about 14 cents.

NOTE BY MINISTER CONGER.—It is impossible to make any comparison of duties on cotton cloth. The new duties are estimated on the number of threads contained in 5 square millimeters. It is apparent, however, that they are much increased. For instance, crude, unbleached cotton in the 1896 tariff paid 1,500 reis a kilogram, while in the present tariff it is subjected to duties ranging between 1,500 reis and 14,000 reis a kilogram, according to its texture; bleached cotton paid 2,400 reis a kilogram in 1896, and in 1897 between 2,200 reis and 20,000 reis.

BRAZILIAN TARIFF CHANGES.

Consul-General Seeger sends from Rio de Janeiro, under date of January 13, 1899, copy of the Brazilian Review (semiofficial), noting the changes in the Brazilian tariff for 1899. The alterations are as follows: Woolen felt hats are raised to 6.300 milreis (88 cents);[1] plain felt, rabbit and other skin, castor, and hair hats are reduced to the same rate. The payment of 10 per cent of duties in gold is equivalent to a virtual increase of the duties established by the tariff of 1898, still in force, of 35 per cent with exchange at 6d. (12 cents), 28½ per cent with exchange at 7d. (14 cents), 23¾ per cent at 8d. (16 cents), 20 per cent at 9d. (18 cents), and 17 per cent at 10d. (20 cents).

[1] Taking the market value of the paper milreis as 14 cents; as noted, however, 10 per cent of the duties are to be paid in gold.

BRITISH GUIANA.

An Ordinance to Fix a Tariff of Duties on Goods Imported into this Colony.[1]

Be it enacted by the governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the combined court thereof, as follows:

1. This ordinance may be cited as the customs duties ordinance, 1897.

2. There shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, for the public use of this colony, the several duties set forth in the first schedule to this ordinance upon all goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated in the said schedule which shall be imported into this colony, or taken out of bond for consumption in this colony.

3. There shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid for the public use of this colony, upon all goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated in the first schedule to this ordinance, and not hereinafter exempted from payment of duty, which shall be imported into this colony, or taken out of bond for consumption in this colony, an ad valorem duty at the rate of 10 per cent, or $10 upon every $100 of the value of such goods, wares, and merchandise at their respective places of shipment.

4. The goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated in the second schedule to this ordinance which shall be imported into this colony, or taken out of bond for consumption in this colony, shall be exempt from the payment of duty.

5. Goods not prohibited to be imported into or used in the colony, composed of any article liable to duty as a part or ingredient thereof, shall be chargeable with the full duty payable on such article, or, if composed of more than one article liable to duty, then with the full duty payable on the article charged with the highest rate of duty: Provided, That this section shall not apply in the case of any article being a compound of or containing opium, other than crude opium, and specially imported for medicinal purposes only.

6. No liquor containing more than 42 per cent of proof spirit as verified by Sykes's hydrometer shall be deemed wine, and no liquor containing more than 20 per cent of proof spirits as verified by Sykes's hydrometer shall be deemed malt liquor. All liquor containing more than 42 per cent of proof spirit verified as aforesaid and all liquor other than wine containing more than 20 per cent of proof spirit verified as aforesaid shall be deemed spirits.

7. The provisions of the customs ordinance, 1884, which relate to the warehouseing of goods shall not be applicable to gunpowder imported into this colony; and the duty on all such gunpowder shall be paid immediately on importation.

7*a*. If the importer fails to pay such duty immediately, the consignee or agent of the vessel in which the gunpowder was imported may pay the duty and recover the amount thereof, together with the cost of storage and all other costs properly incurred, from the importer, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

8. For the purpose of encouraging the trade of this colony with other countries, persons exporting goods, wares, and merchandise on which duties have been paid under and by virtue of this or any other ordinance shall be entitled to a drawback of duties on such goods, wares, and merchandise at and after the rates and amounts levied and paid on such goods, wares, and merchandise; and the manner of claiming such drawback shall be subject to the provisions of the customs ordinance, 1884, and any other ordinance that may be hereafter passed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the court of policy, for the regulation of drawbacks: Provided, That no such drawback shall be allowed on any opium, bhang, or ganje, spirits of any kind, wine, or gunpowder: Provided, also, That drawback shall only be allowed as regards animals in such cases as may have been or may be provided for by regulations from time to time made by the comptroller of customs with the approval of the governor in council: Provided, also, That no drawback shall be allowed on any goods exported after the expiration of twelve months from the date of the importation thereof, or on any goods which in the opinion of the governor in council have been exported with a view to their reimportation.

9. It shall be lawful for the comptroller of the customs to permit hard bread and crackers made in this colony from duty-paid flour to be exported under drawback, subject to such regulations in that behalf as may have been or may be from time to time made by the comptroller of customs with the approval of the governor in council.

10. Every person who contracts with Her Majesty's Government for the service of any of Her Majesty's regular troops stationed in this colony, or of any of Her Majesty's ships arriving at this colony, shall be entitled to receive back the amount of duty paid on materials or supplies furnished under such contract for the service of such troops or ships: Provided, That due proof is made of the payment of such duties, and that the nature and quantities of the materials or supplies furnished under such contract are duly certified by the officer commanding such troops or ship.

11. (Persons to whom duties to be paid.)

12. (Power to take promissory notes in payment of duties in certain cases.)

13. (Recovery of duties.)

14. (Mode of collection of duties of customs.)

15. (Saving of operation of ordinances relating to duties of customs.)

16. (Effect of obligation to pay duties of customs.)

17. This ordinance shall come into force on the publication thereof, and shall continue in force until and inclusive of the 31st day of March, 1899, unless otherwise enacted by the combined court.

On March 13, 1899, Consul Moulton informed the Department of State that a surtax of 16½ per cent has been added to the following duties, save the duties on beef, pork, flour, corn meal, ghee, oleomargarine, lard, rice, bread and crackers, spirits and strong waters, and leaf tobacco, which remain as they are in the schedules:

CHILE.

Appreciating the great interest taken by our merchants in being informed about all changes in the tariff laws of the countries with which they have dealings, I have translated the new Chilean tariff which went into effect on January 1, 1898.[2]

Some of the changes are very radical and the duties on some articles are prohibitory. Under the former tariff the following articles were on the free list. They now pay the following duties:

Indian corn, 60 per cent, on a valuation of 8 centavos (2.92 cents) per kilogram (2.2046 pounds).

Oats, 60 per cent, on a valuation of 12 centavos (4.38 cents) per kilogram.

Barley (specific), 1.50 pesos (54.7 cents) per 100 kilograms (220.46 pounds).

Rye remains on the free list.

Wheat flour, formerly on the free list, now pays 2 pesos (73 cents) per 100 kilograms.

Corn meal, rye meal, and oatmeal continue to pay 25 per cent, on a valuation of 40 centavos (14.6 cents) per kilogram.

Leaf tobacco formerly paid a specific duty of 1.60 pesos per kilogram, as also cut tobacco.

Under the present tariff leaf tobacco pays 2.60 pesos (95 cents) and cut tobacco 4 pesos ($1.46) per kilogram.

Cigarettes continue to pay 9 pesos ($3.285) per kilogram.

J. W. MERRIAM, Consul.

IQUIQUE, March 25, 1898.

If the merchandise paying 60 per cent and 35 per cent duties, because of the material entering into their composition (such as those made of tin plate, paper, pasteboards, leather, etc.), come mixed with another ingredient paying a lesser duty, then 60 per cent and 35 per cent shall still be paid, unless the inferior ingredient present be more than 75 per cent of the value of the article, in which case the latter shall pay a duty of 25 per cent.

In all cases in which this law imposes an exceptional duty, or exempts from duty certain merchandise, because of the use to which they are destined (such as felt for men's hats, utensils for telegraph, etc.), it shall be understood that they shall not be entitled to this exemption from duty, nor shall be subject to a duty, except in those cases in which, by their special structure or their nature, they be exclusively applicable to the use designated. Otherwise they shall pay the common duty of 25 per cent.

In the application of the specific duty on wines and liquors it shall be understood that the tax refers to bottles of ordinary size, i. e., those having a capacity of 90 centiliters to 1 liter in the case of bitters, sweet liquors, gin, and absinthe, and 60 to 75 centiliters for bottles of wine and other liquors.

When these articles come in bottles which exceed the maximum and do not exceed the minimum established, this circumstance shall be expressed in the policy, and duties shall be collected, increased or diminished, in proportion to the excess or lack of the established measure.

[1] Law No. 72, of 1894, dated November 16, 1894, repealing law No. 85, of 1892, and establishing duties on tobacco (Diario Oficial, No. 9,652, of December 12, 1894).

ART. 1. Tobacco imported into the country shall be subject to the following duties:

| | | Pesos. |
|---|---|---|
| Cigars | kilogram | $4.00 |
| Cigarettes | do | 3.00 |
| Tobacco, cut, and other tobacco of all kinds | do | 2.00 |

Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, the Government is authorized to reserve the right, if it sees fit, for a period of six years, dating from the sanction of the present law, to import and manufacture cigarettes; and may therefore alienate the revenue derived from such monopoly.

The contract for such revenue shall be made by public auction, conformably to the formalities prescribed on the leasing of revenues by the fiscal code, the sale having previously been advertised at least one hundred and eighty days in advance.

On the leasing in question, as well as for public auctions of revenues, no percentage shall be collected.

At the expiration of the lease, any stock of cigarettes or of raw materials for manufacturing the same, shall be subject to the payment of an impost equal to the above-mentioned import duty.

ART. 2. The cultivation and exportation from the country of tobacco is entirely free; it shall only be subject to a consumption tax not exceeding 1.50 pesos per 12½ kilograms for cigars and leaf tobacco of first quality, and in proportion for inferior qualities.

The tax shall be established by each assembly in the manner thought most convenient in view of the existing circumstances in each department, and by taking for a basis the state of local industries. Consequently, the tax may be applied either on tobacco destined for sale, on tobacco intended to be manufactured or prepared in any manner, or on the manufactories, stores, shops, or places of sale for this product.

ART. 3. Of the net proceeds of the consumption tax on national tobacco, 60 per cent shall be attributed to the department and 40 per cent to the municipalities.

The customs duties established by the present law on cigarettes imported from abroad shall be collected for the benefit of the treasury.

ART. 4. The collection of the consumption tax on national tobacco, established in virtue of the present law, shall be leased by public auction, and these auctions shall be held in every district.

In the event of inability to hold such auction, the department shall collect this revenue, conformably to the ordinances on the matter.

ART. 5. Law 85 of December 10, 1892, relative to the consumption tax on tobacco, is hereby repealed.

[2] (See first supplement.)

[3] By "baggage" is to be understood the articles which a traveler brings with him on the ship conveying him and which are destined to his particular use, to wit: Clothes, hose, watch, bed, saddle, arms, and professional instruments.

The used effects which, in addition to baggage, immigrants may import free of duty are household furniture, and tools and other instruments necessary in the exercise of their calling, but in no case shall such exemption extend to articles of commerce. (Art. 131 of the fiscal code.)

ESTABLISHMENT OF A SIXTEENTH CLASS OF THE TARIFF.

Law No. 160, of December 28, 1896, establishes a sixteenth class of the tariff, to consist of the articles hereinafter named, which shall be liable to a duty of 3 pesos per kilogram (2.2046 pounds).

Side arms, firearms, or arms of any kind, excepting shotguns.

Brocades and all other tissues of gold, silver, or other metals, as well as threads of the same material.

Perfumery and toilet articles, such as essences, creams, and perfumed soaps.

Gold and silver in any form other than coins or bars.

Precious stones and playing cards.

ART. 3. The increase set forth in article 1 of the present law shall be collected on the duties established by the law 36 of 1886, and according to the terms of article 205 of the constitution.[1]

ART. 4. The following goods are exempted from the increase of duties referred to in article 1, viz: Coal and materials imported for the manufacture of ice, which shall only pay one-half centavo per kilogram.

Crucibles for smelting works.

Presses and printing machines.

Unsized printing paper.

Rails and fixed stock for public or private railways not otherwise exempt.

Ships, in whole or in part, and their respective machinery.

Cotton tissues, blue or white, or unbleached and partly white, neither figured, sewn, nor brocaded, such as those known under the name of "bogotanas," calicoes, "liencillos," madapolam, tissues called "bramantes," drills, prints ("arazas"), and the like.

PARAGRAPH.—The dispositions of the present law do not modify the ordinance of the minister of finance, dated July 6, 1895, in relation to classes.

ART. 5. The Government is authorized to include in the same class of the customs tariff similar articles which have been distributed in different classes.

ART. 6. The postal service being paid by the Universal Postal Union, the tonnage dues provided by article 192 of the fiscal code are reestablished and shall be collected by the respective custom-houses at the rate of 1 peso 50 centavos per ton, according to the terms of the said article.

PARAGRAPH.—The Government will not consequently take into consideration the conventions respecting the conveyance of the mails nor the exemption from the tonnage dues enumerated in articles 11 and 22 of the law 109 of 1880, such articles being repealed.

ART. 7. Exemptions from custom duties granted by law or stipulated in contracts entered into with the Government, to railway or navigation companies, manufactories, etc., which do not specifically state the duty-free articles shall only apply to the following goods, viz: Machines and extra parts for the same, rails, nails, tools, rolling stock, and telegraph accessories. All other goods shall be subject to import duties according to the class of the tariff under which placed.

ART. 8. The Government is authorized to establish a duty not to exceed 2 pesos upon packages sent by mail. Such duty shall be collected in proportion to the weight and within the limits determined in conventions concerning the matter.

ART. 9. Merchandise imported with passengers' baggage shall be dutiable according to class 16, even when such baggage weighs less than 150 kilograms.

PARAGRAPH.—Every artisan or agriculturist coming to work in the country may, in addition to his luggage, import free of duty up to 100 kilograms of goods and also the tools deemed necessary for the purposes of his trade.

ART. 10. The executive power is authorized, for the benefit of the treasury, and if so deemed fit, to diminish or suppress the duties established in virtue of the present law upon goods imported through the custom-house at Tumaco.

ART. 11. On and after January 1, 1897, the value of the different kinds of stamped paper and Government stamps shall be fixed as follows:

|---|---|
| First class | $0.30 |
| Second class | 1.00 |
| Third class | 2.00 |

PARAGRAPH.—The Government shall adopt the necessary measures in order that no stamped paper or stamps can be used without a special countermark indicating the new value.

Are maintained in the customs code all the dispositions hitherto in force which designate the articles whose entry is prohibited either through certain custom-houses or through any custom-house of the Republic.

[1] Under article 205 of the constitution duties can only be increased or decreased by tenths, and only three months after the promulgation of the law.

The importation into the Republic of walking sticks, umbrellas, etc., in which swords, daggers, or other weapons which might cause injury to person are concealed is prohibited.

The importation of the following articles is, unless imported for the Government, likewise prohibited:

Cannon of whatever shape or system, machine guns of all kinds, rifles, carbines, and other weapons of precision.

Swords, cutlasses, sabers and cavalry lances; percussion caps, bullets, grenades, and other projectiles for the above-mentioned firearms.

Rifles, guns, firelocks, muskets, and other warlike arms not specially intended or necessary for sporting purposes.

Cartridge boxes, shoulder belts, and all descriptions of accouterment for soldiers.

And, in general, any instrument, apparatus, or article which, not being manifestly adopted for personal defense, might, by its nature and use, be employed in war or for the armament or equipment of troops.

The importation of spurious coin and of foreign coin of a fineness of less than 90 per cent, also of machinery for minting coins is prohibited; this is likewise the case for all national money, of any denomination or metal (with exception of gold or silver money of a fineness of 90 per cent, and for blanks (esqueletos) for bank notes (laws 36 of 1886 and 107 of 1887). The Government is, however, authorized by law 41 of 1888 to permit the clearance through custom-houses of the Republic of all current coin of a fineness of 83.5 per cent.

The transit through national territory of spurious coins, of apparatus, arms, and ammunition—the importation of which is prohibited—and of nitroglycerin, is likewise illegal.

SUPPLEMENTS.

1.—Decrease of duty.

CIRCULAR No. 24810, OF JANUARY 25, 1895.

In virtue of the present circular, the total increase of duties applicable to certain goods stipulated by the decree No. 453, of February 10, 1893, shall be decreased monthly by one-tenth from February 20 proximo.

The same successive decrease shall be applied from February 21 proximo to the duties on tobacco increased by the ordinance of March 9, 1893, until the rate of duty established by article 1 of law No. 72 of 1894, shall be reached; cigarettes and cut tobacco, the importation of which is prohibited to private persons, the State having reserved the monopoly for their manufacture and importation, are excepted.

Decree No. 453, mentioned above, provided as follows:

ART. 1. The import duties stipulated in the customs tariff for the following goods shall be increased monthly from March 16 to December 16 of this year (1893), at which date the definite augmentation shall be completed.

This increase shall be applied at the following rate and per kilogram:

Five centavos for brandy, rum, whisky, geneva, rosolis, and concentrated liquids for the manufacture of said beverages; for the wines included in the eighth class of the tariff (duty 40 centavos) and for the goods mentioned in the fifteenth class (duty 1 peso 20 centavos).

One centavo for all pharmaceutical specialties, such as wines, sirups, pills, ointments, elixirs, lozenges, etc., and all patent medicines.

The increased duties herein mentioned have been added in the several articles throughout the tariff.

2.—Customs treatment of machetes and knives.

[Diario Oficial No. 9706, of February 28, 1895.]

For the classification of knives and machetes proceeding from abroad, as well as those of such articles the customs clearance of which has not yet been effected, the customs must comply with the following stipulations:

Pruning knives (calabozos), sickles (aguinches), and other edged implements for grubbing, as well as machetes or hunting knives, not exceeding 40 centimeters (40 inches Granadinas) in length, shall be ranged in the fourth class of the customs tariff, and subject to a duty of 5 centavos per kilogram. Knives or edged implements employed in arts and trades, such as knives for bookbinders and shoemakers and those employed for agricultural purposes (other than the edged implements for grubbing and the hunting knives mentioned above), shall be ranged in the sixth class and subject to a duty of 20 centavos.

Machetes and peinillas which are carried with a belt (other than those employed in the army), daggers, and all other similar articles shall be considered as side arms and ranged in the fourteenth class, and subject to a duty of $1 per kilogram.

Machetes, peinillas, and sabers, employed in the army are arms of war, and as such prohibited on importation.

Digitized by Google

Common table knives are ranged in the eighth class, and those with handles of ivory, mother-of-pearl, plated, and of Britannia metal are comprised in the fourteenth class.

Knives and machetes not enumerated in the preceding paragraphs are comprised in the eighth class.

Should the handles, sheaths, or other parts of machetes, knives, etc., be of silver or a material other than that generally employed in their manufacture, and should, owing to their weight or other circumstances, such parts be subject to higher duty when imported separately (ordinance of February 10, 1887, Diario Oficial, No. 6958), the machetes or knives in question shall be subject to the duty leviable on the latter material.

ORDINANCE OF MAY 10, 1895, COMPLETING THE PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO MACHETES OR HUNTING KNIVES.

The law No. 129 of 1888, which, in the classication or machetes or hunting knives, established for these knives a length not exceeding 20 inches, meant in English measure, as said measure is generally inscribed in the catalogues of models published by the firms manufacturing the kinds of knives ordinarily imported into this country. Besides this measure is used in the orders and in the commercial invoices, and also usually in the sales and purchases effected on the market of the country.

Consequently, for the collection of import duties, the customs must range in the fourth class of the tariff such machetes or hunting knives the blades of which does not measure more than 0.508 meter in length, equivalent to 20 English inches.

3.—Surtax of 25 per cent.

18.—CIRCULAR OF THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE OF MAY 3, 1897, RELATIVE TO THE APPLICATION OF THE SURTAX OF 25 PER CENT ESTABLISHED BY LAW NO. 160 OF 1896.

[Diario oficial No. 10340, of May 17, 1897.]

In addition to the import duties proper, returnable to the treasury and set forth in the tariff, the customs shall collect on merchandise imported into the country a duty of 25 per cent to be computed on customs liquidations. This surtax shall go to the departments, and shall, under the strict responsibility of the customs administrators, be remitted direct to the superior financial officers of the said departments.

The above-mentioned duties were originally fixed in the said tariff, and upon these duties, without taking into account any modifications thereto under laws and decrees issued in virtue of authorities granted to the Government, it was decided to calculate the surtaxes established in articles 1, 3, and 4 of law No. 160 of 1896, according to the stipulations of article 3. However, inasmuch as the additional 25 per cent can not be calculated on the duties originally fixed, owing to the fact that law No. 88 of 1886 establishing same expressly states in article 1 that this 25 per cent must be computed on the liquidations, it necessarily follows that the surtax referred to must not apply to the duties in force at the time it was decreed, but to the duties in force at the time when the liquidations are effected, and at present such duties are those originally established by law No. 36 of 1886, increased or decreased in conformity with the different laws modifying the same.

4.—Customs treatment of carbide of calcium and "iodolithe."

According to the Diario oficial of December 11, 1897, carbide of calcium shall be included in Class III and iodolithe in Class IV of the tariff.

5.—Export duty on coffee.

LAW NO. 9, OF SEPTEMBER 4, 1898, PROMULGATED SEPTEMBER 21, 1898, REPEALING THE EXPORT DUTY ON COFFEE.

[Diario oficial of September 27, 1898.]

SOLE ARTICLE.—Law No. 37 of 1896, establishing an export duty on coffee (see third supplement), is repealed.

ART. 2. The following shall be exempt from import duties:[1]

a. All articles consigned directly to the colonial government and to the land or marine forces.

Provisions and other necessaries imported for account of the Government and intended for the crews of Dutch men-of-war and the garrison shall be included in these articles. Importations made for the private account of officers or their subordinates shall be excepted, even when such articles are shipped to their official address.

b. Provisions and necessaries for consumption on board of vessels entering the port, upon the condition that such articles be entered in the manifest, conformably to article 4, and that the customs officers have, on their visit, ascertained that they are really intended for this purpose and do not exceed the quantity fixed in article 3. This exemption may also be granted for larger quantities, provided that the excess be reexported on the same vessel and that, up to the moment of exportation, the vessel remains under customs supervision or seals.

c. Effects and baggage of travelers for their personal use, new articles excepted.

[1] ART. 3. Article 2, relative to the duty-free goods in question, should be completed in the following manner:

"For all articles for which the free entry is requested the declaration must mention the class in which the interested party considers they should be classed, as well as their proper denomination.

"Should it be ascertained, at the time of examination, that the articles do not come under the class assigned to them, and that they are subject to duty, the declaration shall be deemed to contain an erroneous designation of the goods."

d. Personal effects of persons coming to establish themselves in the colony of Surinam. These shall be examined on entry and shall only be admitted free of duty when the examiner finds that they have been in use, that they are not new, are not comestibles, and are proportionate to the profession or social condition of the owner. In order to obtain this permission of free entry a written request must be previously addressed to the controller of taxes at Paramaribo, or to the collector at Nickerie. When, at the moment of examination, new articles, provisions, or other comestibles are found, which have not been declared or for which the permit of free entry has been granted on the declaration that they have been in use, such declaration shall be considered erroneous, and proceedings shall be taken conformably to law.

e. Gold and silver coins, gold and silver in bars, ingots, or any other form so that such metals can not be utilized for any other purpose without remelting.

f. Articles exported and reimported within one year after having undergone repairs of any kind.

g. The following articles:

50. Asphalt, bituminous cardboard for roofing; also asphalted felt for roofing and for vessels.
51. Ballast, such as refuse, sand, and similar materials, of no market value, and all ballast of vessels not discharged.
52. Tin plate.

ECUADOR.

[Tariff translated by Minister Tillman, of Quito.]

All foreign merchandise may be imported into the Republic by natives and foreigners without distinction of the flag of the vessel.

For the collection of duties on imports the articles will be divided into fifteen classes, assessed as follows per kilogram (2.2046 pounds):

| Class. | Rate of duty. |
|---|---|
| | Sucres. |
| 1. Prohibited goods | ..... |
| 2. Free goods | ..... |
| 3. | 0.01 |
| 4. | .02 |
| 5. | .03 |
| 6. | .05 |
| 7. | .10 |
| 8. | .15 |
| 9. | .25 |
| 10. | .50 |
| 11. | 1.00 |
| 12. | 1.50 |
| 13. | 2.00 |
| 14. | 3.00 |
| 15. | 30 per ct. ad val. |

CLASS 1.—Prohibited articles.

1. Rum from sugar cane, and its compounds.
2. Balls, bombs, grenades, metallic cartridges for guns, and other munitions for war.
3. Articles of drink and food containing substances injurious to health.
4. Carbines, rifles, muskets, rockets, regulation pistols, and other weapons of war.
5. Dynamite and other similar explosive substances.
6. Kerosene of less than 150 degrees.
7. Machines and apparatus for coining money.
8. Counterfeit money of every kind.
9. Playing cards of every class (while the Government has a monopoly).
10. Gunpowder and salt during the period of monopoly.
11. Copper and nickel coins of every class other than national or those coined by order of the State.
12. Foreign silver coin can neither be cleared from the custom-house nor put into circulation in the country. It will be detained in the custom-house until it is shipped abroad under bond. No bond will be canceled until the return of the permit from the custom-house, which will be conceded at the proper time to the satisfaction of the superintendent of the custom-house. In case permit is not returned in due time, the bond will be forfeited and the amount turned into the treasury.

Government only can import for national use articles of war and other objects comprehended in the present article, with the exception of subsections 3, 7, and 8, which can not be introduced on any account, nor those under subsection 12 without special law by Congress for this object.

As to dynamite, it will be disposed of by the laws reforming the laws with reference to mining.

CLASS 2.—Free goods.[1]

Plows, baggage of travelers up to 100 kilograms (220.46 pounds) for each person, always understood that traveler and baggage come in the same vessel. The excess of baggage will pay the duties corresponding to the class to which it belongs. It is understood that by baggage is meant clothes, shoes, bed, saddle, arms, and instruments of the profession of the traveler, though it may not have been used.

[1] Minister Sampson sends from Quito, under date of December 1, 1898, copy of a law passed by the Ecuadorian Congress and just published translation of which reads:

"ARTICLE 1. Machines and machinery intended for the encouragement of agriculture and manufactures will be released from the payment of all import duties.

"ART. 2. In like manner, no import duties on cotton, ginned or unginned, will be exacted for the term of two years from the promulgation of this decree."

The diplomatic agents of Ecuador can introduce free of duty when returning to the country up to 400 kilograms of luggage.

The natural and manufactured products of Peru, when not prohibited, can be introduced by the dry ports or overland. This exception will continue while the products of Ecuador have the same rights. When the reciprocity ceases, the introduction from Peru to Ecuador will cease also, except the salt introduced from Peru over the dry ports or overland, which will pay 1 cent per kilogram.

Articles for the use of foreign religious institutions, established by virtue of former contracts, may enjoy this privilege.

The sacred vases and priests' vestments, which may be introduced directly for church service, previously authorized by the Government or demanded by the bishop or his vicar-general, and accompanied by the invoice and a copy of bill of lading.

The effects for the personal use of foreign ministers and diplomatic agents from foreign countries accredited to the Government of Ecuador when there is reciprocity on the part of the nation they represent.

The foreign diplomatic agents will present to the director of the custom-house or to the custom-house guards, together with the passport, a list of the number of packages with marks and numbers, and in case that their effects should not come with them they will manifest them to the minister of foreign affairs, stating that the articles which they import are for their own personal use and consumption that they may ask a corresponding order for the director of the custom-house.

The articles which may come for the account of the Government destined for public utility or adornment on the previous order of the minister of finance.

The Ecuadorian consul at the port of shipment shall legalize the general manifests and invoices submitted to him by shippers. These documents shall be drawn up in Spanish and presented in quadruple copies, one of which shall be remitted to the shipper, another shall be addressed to the customs administrator at the place to which the cargo is destined, the third shall be transmitted to the minister of finance, and the last shall be preserved in the archives of the consulate.

The consular invoice shall be formed after model No. 9, expressing the kind of package, such as bags, or boxes, or barrels, and the special contents thereof, not using general terms, as wool, cotton, hardware, but designating them specially. Where there is no Ecuadorian consul, that of a friendly nation will certify; failing consular agents, the local authorities will certify.

Consuls will not certify memorandums nor invoices directed to ports not open for imports, nor after the ships have left the ports to which the documents refer, under penalty of removal; and it is their duty to make exact textual of the same certification of all the copies of each memorandum or invoice without demanding more for this than the fees, which herewith follows.

It is prohibited to include in the same invoice two or more shipments, but each of these must carry its own invoice.

CONSULAR FEES.

The consuls will charge for the certification of invoices according to value in the following manner: One sucre for invoices whose value reaches to and includes 300 sucres; 4 sucres from 300 to 800 sucres, inclusive; 8 sucres from 800 to 1,500 sucres, inclusive; and 2 sucres in addition to the 8 sucres collected for the first 1,500 sucres for every additional 100 sucres of the invoices.

For the manifests consuls will collect 1 centavo of a sucre for every ton burden.

ADDITIONAL SPECIAL DUTIES.

The customs shall, on the import duties leviable, collect the following surtaxes, the proceeds of which shall be applied to the undermentioned expenses:

(1) Twenty per cent for the railroad.
(2) Ten per cent for the foreign debt.
(3) Two per cent for drainage of Guayaquil.
(4) Four per cent for the consolidation of the municipal debt of Guayaquil.
(5) Twenty per cent for providing the payment of the bonds emitted according to the decree for a loan of 1,500,000 sucres.
(6) Six per cent for wharf dues.
(7) Four per cent for the construction of the Guayaquil custom-house.

SAN VICENTE COLLEGE DUTIES.

Wood, which may be introduced from abroad in logs or beams, for building, and beams or boards even when planed, will pay one-half of 1 centavo per kilogram.

There will be collected on foreign sugar for each quintal 5 centavos and 2 per cent on the importation of liquors, excluding wine.

These duties will be directly delivered by the collector of customs to the treasurer of the College of San Vicente, Guayaquil, and the treasurer of the directory of the beneficence of said city every fifteen days.

EXTRA DUTIES, MISCELLANEOUS.

For the construction of railroads and for funds for appropriating lands which the city may order, there will collected, according to the decree of October 3, 1894, and December 5, 1896, the following duties:

For the construction of railroads, 10 centavos for every 100 kilograms (220.46 pounds) gross weight, upon the packages and articles of importation and exportation, the exports of ivory nuts, pitch, hides, split and whole canes, fowls, vegetables, coal, barks, fruits, woods, plants, sisal hemp, tamarinds, and minerals excepted.

For the expropriation expenses of the city (Guayaquil) during two years, 30 centavos of surcharges for each kilogram of gross weight on the duties on importation of matches, and one-half cent of surcharge on all exports for each kilogram except ivory nuts.

EXPORT DUTIES.

The duties on exports will be collected according to the following tariff for each 100 kilograms (220.46 pounds) of gross weight:

| | Sucres. | | Sucres. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cacao | 0.64 | Toquilla straw for hats | 12.00 |

II.—Decree Establishing the Method of Assessment, Collection, and Repartition of the Sea Octroi in French Guiana.

[Journal officiel, No. 96, of March 28, 1897.]

The President of the French Republic, on the report of the minister of colonies, taking into consideration article 6 of the law of January 11, 1892; taking into consideration the deliberations of the council-general of French Guiana, dated December

28, 1896, and of the colonial commission, dated August 18, 1896; the council of state having been consulted, decrees:

ARTICLE 1. The above-mentioned deliberation of the council-general, the tenor of which is hereto annexed, establishing the method of assessment, the regulations for the collection, and mode of repartition of the sea octroi in French Guiana, is approved.

ART. 2. The minister of colonies is intrusted with the execution of the present decree.

Done at Paris, March 11, 1897.

ANNEX TO THE DECREE OF MARCH 11, 1897, ESTABLISHING THE METHOD OF ASSESSMENT, COLLECTION, AND REPARTITION OF THE SEA OCTROI IN FRENCH GUIANA.

DELIBERATION OF THE COLONIAL COMMISSION OF GUIANA OF AUGUST 18, 1896.

ARTICLE 1. The sea octroi leviable on goods of whatever origin on their importation into ports of Guiana shall be collected conformably to the annexed schedule, specifying the goods liable to the octroi and the basis for the collection thereof.

ART. 2. The sea octroi shall be liquidated by the customs of the colony on a collective statement, together with the customs duties and the various consumption taxes.

ARTS. 3, 4, and 5. (Relative to the repartition of the sea octroi.)

* * * * * * *

REGLEMENTARY PROVISIONS FOR THE COLLECTION OF THE OCTROI.

ART. 6. All goods entering into the colony, whether liable to sea octroi or not, must be declared at the custom-house, under penalty of forfeiture and liability to a fine of 500 francs.

ART. 7. The obligations of captains with regard to manifests for customs purposes shall apply to the sea octroi. This is likewise the case for the deposit of ships' papers.

ART. 8. Goods other than those forwarded coastwise from one place to another in the colony may only be landed in ports open to trade. These ports are Cayenne and Saint-Laurent-du-Maroni.

If important commercial interests require that a vessel should land goods elsewhere than in one of the ports open to trade, the captain or consignee of the vessel shall apply to the chief of the customs for the necessary leave to effect such discharge. On this authority being granted the vessel may proceed to the spot indicated, where the operations so exceptionally undertaken shall take place under customs surveillance.

The captain will, however, be required to fulfill at the custom-house in whose district the place of discharge is situated the necessary formalities for entry, under a penalty of a fine of 500 francs in addition to the confiscation of the goods.

ART. 9. Goods can only be discharged under the surveillance of the customs and with a permit issued by the latter, under liability to forfeiture and to a fine of 500 francs.

Such discharge can only take place between sunrise and sunset, even if effected by permit, under liability to the confiscation of the landed goods.

Moreover, each transport by lighter from the vessels to the shore must be accompanied by a memorandum under the hand of the captain, stating the marks, numbers, quantities, and nature of the goods so conveyed. The said memorandum shall be delivered to the customs officers prior to the unloading of the lighter, under penalty of the confiscation of the goods and of a fine of 100 francs inflicted on the lightermen.

ART. 10. Should the captain have become liable to the infliction of a fine, the vessel shall not be cleared until the captain has consigned the amount of the fine or furnished solvent bond for the same.

ART. 11. French vessels not regularly engaged in the coasting trade, as well as foreign ships, which, save in case of properly justified "force majeure" or without the special authority provided in the foregoing article 9, section 2, enter any port other than those open to trade shall be confiscated, together with their cargo, and shall be liable to a fine of 1,000 francs.

This will likewise apply should such vessels unlawfully discharge goods along the coast, and all goods already landed shall be also forfeited.

The same penalties shall be applicable, whether relating to coasters or undecked boats of the colony arriving from abroad or foreign pirogues or canoes, should they put in elsewhere than the aforesaid open ports or discharge or land or attempt to discharge or land goods along the coast.

ART. 12. Captains and masters of vessels or undecked boats are, as regards the customs, relieved from all responsibility concerning passengers' luggage, it being the duty of every passenger, under liability to the penalties provided in the present decree, to comply with the necessary customs formalities in respect to the articles belonging to him.

ART. 13. Any owner or consignee of goods shall furnish the customs with a detailed declaration, signed by him, containing all particulars necessary for the application of the tariff. This declaration must show the quantity and description of the packages and indicate the nature, kind, quality, and origin of the goods, and, further, the weight, measure, or number of goods dutiable according to weight, measure, or number, and the value of goods liable to an ad valorem duty. The declarations must also state the name of the vessel and captain. In the margin should appear the marks and numbers on the packages.

The detailed declarations must be delivered to the customs office within three days from the entry of the vessel.

Should the owner or consignee of imported goods be unable, owing to exceptional circumstances, to furnish the required particulars, he shall be allowed by the chief of the customs, subject to the necessary precautionary measures, to identify the said goods himself prior to furnishing the detailed declaration; but the employees may in no wise be concerned in such examination.

ART. 14. The sea octroi to be collected shall consist of such octroi as is payable on the deposit of the declarations by the parties liable thereto.

In case of modification or amendment of the tariff, the proportion of the duties payable shall be regulated by the date of the entry in the register of the detailed declarations at the custom-house of the port or place where the goods have already arrived and can be exhibited to the customs.

ART. 15. No declaration can be made in anticipation—i. e., prior to the importing vessel being reported to the customs of the port or station where the declaration is presented.

ART. 16. The dutiable value upon which the octroi must be calculated shall be:

1. That fixed by the "official current price list" (mercuriale officielle) periodically established in execution of the local decree of February 22, 1838.

2. For goods not mentioned in the said "mercuriale," the invoice value increased by 25 per cent.

ART. 17. Detailed declarations can only be rectified when the goods are not undergoing examination.

Any designation of a package for inspection shall amount to a commencement of examination.

ART. 18. The customs shall have the faculty to check the accuracy of the declaration, whether in reference to goods or passengers' effects. For this purpose the goods or effects shall be taken to the customs office or to any other appointed place in order to be examined, weighed, measured, or counted.

In the event of verification the octroi is levied on the quantities ascertained by the customs.

Should the customs deem it unnecessary to proceed to an inspection, the octroi shall be charged upon the quantities set forth in the declaration.

ART. 19. The examination can only be effected in the presence of the declarers (owners of goods or captains of vessels) or their representatives. The goods shall be deemed to be the property of the party in whose name they are presented.

ART. 20. If on entry the customs suspect that the value of the goods dutiable ad valorem has been inaccurately declared, they may proceed to an evaluation of the goods by experts.

Two arbitrators or experts shall thereupon be appointed, one by the declarer and the other by the chief of the local customs service. Should the experts not agree or should the declarer exact it when the experts are appointed, the latter shall choose an umpire.

Should the declarer refuse to appoint an expert, the president of the tribunal at Cayenne or the justice of the peace at Maroni may appoint one on his behalf, and in the event of the experts disagreeing an umpire may be appointed in like manner.

The decision of the arbitrators shall be final and no appeal can be taken therefrom.

Should the experts' examination establish that the value does not exceed the amount declared by the importer increased by 25 per cent, the octroi shall be collected on the declaration or invoice augmented as aforesaid.

Should the value assessed by the experts exceed by 5 per cent the amount of the declaration, with an increase of 25 per cent, the customs will collect the octroi on the experts' assessment.

Such octroi shall be increased by 50 per cent as a fine if the experts' assessment exceeds by 15 per cent the declared and augmented value, and the goods may be detained until the importer has paid or furnished bond for the fine.

All expenses due for the experts' assessment shall be borne by the declarer should the value assigned by the arbitration committee exceed by 5 per cent the declared and augmented value; otherwise the same shall be borne by the treasury of the sea octroi.

The provisions of the present article shall not be applicable to goods the value of which is fixed by the "mercuriales officielles."

ART. 21. In case of contestation between the customs and commerce respecting the origin, kind, or quality of the goods presented for inspection, the difference shall, if the value of the goods does not exceed 1,000 francs, be settled in the colony by experts, after the parties concerned have signed a promise to absolutely abide by the experts' award.

Matters of greater importance shall be referred to the appraisement committee attached to the ministry of commerce. Sample packages of the goods shall be forwarded under customs seals and accompanied by all necessary particulars for facilitating the work.

The goods may be delivered forthwith, provided that the declarer undertakes, under bond, to discharge such duty or octroi or to abide by such consequences as the experts may determine.

ART. 22. Should the goods presented exceed the weight, quantity, or measure declared, the excess shall be subject to double the octroi. This shall not take place, however, if such excess only amounts to one-twentieth for metals and to one-tenth for other goods. In that case the excess, together with the quantities declared, shall only be liable to the single octroi.

ART. 23. Any excess of number of bales, cases, casks, or barrels declared shall be confiscated, with a fine of 100 francs.

ART. 24. If on examination the packages should be found less in number than stated in the declaration, the declarer shall be liable to a fine of 300 francs for every missing package, and the goods exhibited may be detained as security therefor.

Any substitution of packages shall involve the like fine in addition to the forfeiture of the package so substituted.

ART. 25. Any false declaration as to the nature, origin, kind, or quality of the goods which may result in the collection of an octroi by 10 per cent inferior to the actual amount payable to the treasury, or which may have the effect of evading a prohibition, shall be liable to a fine of 100 francs and to the confiscation of the goods.

ART. 26. The octroi shall be paid in full on the goods presented to the customs, without taking into account the state of the goods.

Should the goods, however, be in a damaged condition, the declarer may proceed to a sorting—i. e., he shall be at liberty to withdraw for reexport or destruction in the presence of the customs such goods as are too severely damaged to warrant the payment of the octroi.

The customs may cause to be broken up or rendered unfit for use in their presence any wares presented as old scrap material, but which may seem to them capable of being otherwise used.

ART. 27. The expenses of taking the goods to the place of examination, of unpacking, repacking, and placing them on the scales shall be borne by the owners or declarers.

The same rule shall apply to passengers' luggage.

ART. 28. The goods may be detained by the customs either for inspection or appraisement, or as security for the fines incurred or guarantee for the collectible octroi.

ART. 29. Should the declarer deem fit, for any reason, to abandon the goods to the administration, he must do so in writing, and the goods shall be sold for the benefit of the local budget in the manner prescribed by the customs regulations. The amount of octroi with expenses shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale.

ART. 30. Merchandise, not being postal parcels, stored at the custom-house for inspection or after examination must be removed at the latest forty-eight hours after verification, under liability to a custody tax to be fixed by the council-general.

ART. 31. Goods imported from France unaccompanied by clearance papers, and those regularly shipped which are not claimed at the time of landing or the value of which is not declared by the owners, shall be detained in customs warehouses.

The storage of such goods shall be recorded in a special register, and after seventy-two hours of storage the goods shall, on clearance, be liable to the warehouse tax in force.

If the said goods remain unclaimed at the expiration of one year from the date of the entry thereof in the storage register, they shall be sold for the benefit of the colony, according to the formalities prescribed by the law of August 22, 1791.

The amount of octroi with expenses shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale.

ART. 32. The sea octroi shall, as well as other duties, be liquidated by the customs on the collection effected by the captain of the importing vessel, who shall be responsible therefor and be bound to pay the amount into the treasury on a collective statement drawn up by the customs. The vessel shall also stand as lien for the octroi and other duties, which must be exacted in cash by the captain prior to the removal of the goods.

Digitized by Google

The customs are required to issue individual statements at the request of the captain or receivers of goods.

Statements for the correction of errors to the detriment of the treasury and those for the refund of overpaid octroi shall be made out in the name of the parties who took delivery of the goods and liquidated within a delay of thirty days.

No application for the return of sea octroi shall be entertained if two years have elapsed since payment was effected; the customs shall in like manner be debarred from making a claim for payment of such octroi if one year has elapsed since the latter should have been paid, unless prior to the aforesaid periods either the parties liable or the customs have issued and served a summons, made application to the courts, obtained a judgment, or should hold a promise, agreement, or private and special obligation relative to the amount claimed.

ART. 33. The administration shall, five years after the expiration of each year, be discharged toward debtors in reference to the custody of the liquidation and other registers for such year, and shall not be bound to produce them in case of legal actions being still pending for the trial of which the said registers or documents might be necessary.

ART. 34. The different penalties provided by these regulations, although specially applying to sea octroi, can not be cumulated with those incurred in customs matters for the same acts. In case of their application, only the heaviest penalty shall be inflicted.

ART. 35. The provisions of edicts, laws, ordinances, decrees now in force at Guiana in matters relating to customs, and not contrary to the prescriptions of this decree, shall be applicable in the colony to cases of sea octroi. For the interpretation of these regulations customs employees must conform to ministerial and administrative decisions relative thereto.

CUSTOMS DUTIES.

ART. 13. The import duties shall be established according to the tariff of evaluations.

ART. 14. The customs must tolerate a difference in the declaration, prejudicial to their interests, of 3 per cent as to the kind and quality of the goods and of 6 per cent when relating to the quantity.

When the difference exceeds the aforesaid limits the goods shall be confiscated.

ART. 15. The import duties on goods which are not enumerated in the tariff shall be levied according to their value in the warehouse, as declared by the importers or shippers.

ART. 16. Within forty-eight hours from the examination the customs may preempt, for account of the public treasury, the goods the value of which (declared as mentioned in article 15) is deemed inadequate, by paying immediately to the interested party the declared value plus 10 per cent in gold. This payment shall be effected, at the official rate of exchange of the day, by means of drafts signed by the administration and payable under the same conditions as those drawn to the order of the customs for the payment of the duties due.

ART. 17. The executive is authorized to appoint every year the commission which must establish or revise the tariff of evaluations, and said tariff shall, with the approval of the Executive, enter into force.

ART. 18. The members of this commission shall exercise their functions as long as the tariff remains in force, and the members of each section shall be called upon to serve as arbitrators in final decisions in cases of disagreement between the examiners and clearers of goods. The administrator shall be president of said commission.

ART. 19. When the clearer of goods is a member of the tariff commission and is an interested party in the case, or when, for whatever reason, he can not act as arbitrator or is, in the opinion of the administrator, challengeable as such arbitrator, said official shall designate another person or persons to act in the place of the expert challenged or prevented. Said person or persons shall be chosen from the list by lot. The arbitral judgment in question must be rendered within twenty-four hours, and appeal therefrom can be lodged only when dolus or fraud is proved.

TARES, ETC.

ART. 20. Tares, wastes, or breakage of foreign articles shall be regulated according to the dispositions of the tariff and conformably to the customs regulations.

TRANSIT.

ART. 21. All goods may be cleared from the customs of the Republic for transit, provided that the duties leviable thereon be guaranteed by a document written on stamped paper corresponding to the amount of said duties. The importer must bind himself to return the passes within a period of sixty days, and should the passes not be presented at the expiration of said time the necessary steps shall be taken for the recovery of the duties.

PAYMENT OF EXPORT AND IMPORT DUTIES.

ART. 22. The export duties exceeding 500 pesos may be paid by means of drafts, at sixty days, bearing an interest of 1 per cent per month, indorsed, as all notes to the order of the customs, by the merchants established in the city, and such drafts shall benefit of all privileges accorded to the treasury by the civil and commercial codes.

ART. 23. The import duties must be paid in gold or its equivalent in the paper money of the country at the official rate of exchange.

Digitized by Google

ART. 24. Goods imported through the custom-houses at Encarnación and San José-mi shall enjoy a reduction of 10 per cent from the duties stipulated in the present law.

ART. 25. Goods destined to exportation shall be dutiable by taking for a basis the current market price. This price shall be established by the administration.

WAREHOUSE CHARGES.

ART. 26. All foreign goods and national products which remain in customs warehouses longer than four week days shall pay the following charges: Foreign goods ½ per cent, in paper, on their official value; national products, 15 centavos, in paper, per 100 kilograms, gross weight. With the exception of the aforesaid four days, every month commenced shall be reckoned as a whole month.

ART. 27. The Executive is intrusted with the execution of the present law, and all contrary dispositions are repealed.

ART. 28. The present law shall be communicated to the Executive.

Done in the palace of Congress, December 18, 1894.

TREATY CONCLUDED ON MAY 28, 1884, BETWEEN BRAZIL AND PARAGUAY.

ART. 13. With a view of contributing to the development of commerce and industry of the two States and of benefiting of the special advantages resulting from the proximity of their territories and the facility of communications between them, the high contracting parties have agreed that the products of the soil and industry of the province of Matto-Grosso imported directly into Paragnay through ports on its coasts or through points on the land frontier open to foreign commerce shall be exempt from import duties; and, reciprocally, products of the soil and industry of Paraguay imported directly into the province of Matto-Grosso through ports on the coast and points on the land frontier open to foreign commerce shall enjoy the same privilege.

In order to prevent that illicit commerce should benefit of the advantages herein stipulated, consuls and vice-consuls of the two countries must, when signing the manifests of vessels in destination of an open port in either country, certify that the products are really the produce of the country of exportation. In the absence of consular agents said attestation must be made by the persons or authorities who are charged with the authentication of manifests of vessels destined to open ports of the aforesaid province or of Paraguay.

CONVENTION OF COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION CONCLUDED FEBRUARY 15, 1894, BETWEEN PARAGUAY AND BELGIUM.

In virtue of a convention of commerce and navigation concluded at Asunción on February 15, 1894, between Paraguay and Belgium, the high contracting parties have agreed to grant to each other, reciprocally, the most-favored-nation treatment.

This convention shall remain in force until the expiration of one year from the day when one or the other of the high contracting parties shall have denounced it.

The ratifications were exchanged at Asunción on December 8, 1894.

PERU.

The customs duties are paid in the custom-house of the Republic in pounds sterling, metal coin, at the rate of £1 ($4.8665) for each 10 soles as established in the tariff.

The payment of said duties can be made also in soles silver, with an additional tax of 5 per cent, until a new order from the Government.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE TARIFF.

No. 1. By gross weight is meant the weight of the package weighed with all receptacles and packages.

No. 2. Save stipulations to the contrary, the weight shall always be considered as net.

No. 3. The weight of goods of one kind only shall be considered as gross or net, according to the stipulations of the present tariff, no special declaration to that effect being required.

No. 4. For the purposes of the collection of duty upon goods which in the present tariff are appraised on gross weight, but which are imported in the same package with other goods subject to a different appraisement, the following rules shall be observed: (a) The weight of the goods enumerated in sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 shall be increased by 10 per cent, inclusive of boards and wrappers, and in respect of duty they shall pay according to the highest appraisement applicable thereto. (b) As to goods enumerated in the other sections the weight of same, including immediate wrappers, shall be increased by 15 per cent.

No. 5. Goods imported in a trunk, being of a sole kind and dutiable according to gross weight, shall follow the régime applicable to goods imported in cases or boxes; when of different kinds and dutiable on gross weight, rule No. 4 shall be observed. In all cases the trunk shall be dutiable separately.

No. 6. Articles presented to the customs exceeding the maximum size, weight, or measure provided in the tariff, or not attaining said limits, and which therefore have not been specially appraised, shall pay in proportion to kind and quality.

No. 7. Articles dutiable "according to appraisement," or not specified in the present tariff, shall be dutiable according to the wholesale cost price delivered in the customs warehouse.

CUSTOMS TARIFF.

LAW OF OCTOBER 25, 1886.

The Congress of the Peruvian Republic, considering that the customs tariffs at present in force are excessive, and that it is expedient to modify the same in such manner as to reduce the cost of goods, to develop commerce and industry, and to increase the excise duties and the national revenues, has adopted the following law:

ART. 1. On and after the date of the promulgation of the present law all national products, with the exception of gold and silver in bars or in articles unfit for use, the duty on which shall be established by a special law, shall be exempt from export duty.

ART. 2. The port and tonnage dues, as well as the municipal impost and the tax called "sostituido," are suppressed.

ART. 3. The following goods and products imported from abroad shall, on and after January 1, 1887, be subject to the following duties, payable in cash, on the value of the goods established in the tariff of valuations:

WAREHOUSE DUES.

Whereas it is expedient to establish warehouse dues applicable to goods stored in customs warehouses, in such manner as to conciliate the interests of commerce with those of the treasury, by taking into consideration the expenses incurred by the latter for the maintenance of the warehouses, the following is decreed:

From February 1 of the current year, date on which the new customs tariff enters into force, a monthly warehouse due of 3 centavos per 10 sols, i. e., 3 per cent, shall be collected on the net value of goods conformably to the tariff, after deducting, when necessary, damage, breakage, and leakage.

The present decree modifies article 136 of the commercial regulations in the sense hereinbefore prescribed, and repeals all contrary decrees.

Decree Classifying the Ports of the Republic and Modifying the Dues Applicable to the Merchant Navy.

The constitutional President of the Republic, considering that the law relative to ports should be made to harmonize with the law classifying custom-houses, and that it is expedient to grant to the national merchant navy the facilities necessary for its development, in virtue of the powers conferred to the Government on November 8, last, decrees:

Art. 1. The following are principal ports: Paita, Pimentel, Eten, Pacasmayo, Salaverry, Callao, Pisco, Mollendo, Ilo, and Iquitos.

Art. 2. The following are secondary ports: Túmbez, Talara, Chimbote, Samanco, Casma, Huacho, Cerro Azul, Tambo de Mora, Lomas, Chala, Morro de Sama, Puno on Lake Titicaca, and Leticia on the Amazon.

Art. 3. The following creeks are open to commerce: Zorritos, Máncora, Cholán, Sechura, San José, Malabrigo Huanchaco, San Bartholomé de Chao, Guañape, Santa, Huarmey, Supe, Salinas de Huacho, Chancay, Ancón, Chilca y Mala, Salinas de Otuma, Atico, Quilca ó Islay.

Art. 4. Custom-houses of the first, second, or third class, shall, conformably to the law of October 29, 1886, classifying custom-houses, be established in principal and secondary ports, as well as in the creeks open to commerce.

Art. 5. Merchant vessels of any nationality and proceeding from any port may, on compliance with the provisions of the commercial regulations and other dispositions at present in force, enter the principal ports of the Republic.

Art. 6. Only national or foreign vessels which have, or may adopt, a fixed route with specified places of calling may, on observance of the provisions of the commercial regulations, enter secondary ports and creeks open to commerce.

Art 7. By vessels having a fixed route shall be meant those which indicate periodically the days on which they are required to enter and leave the ports of the Republic, and which effect their commercial operations with the authorization of the Government.

Art. 8. Foreign merchant vessels which have no fixed route can only enter secondary ports or creeks open to commerce in ballast or with national products proceeding from principal ports, and with the authorization of the competent customs administrator of the first class. When they convey in transit foreign goods destined to principal ports or to foreign countries, they shall be permitted to enter, provided that they take on board, at their expense, a customs employee intrusted with the surveillance.

Art. 9. Principal customs administrators may, by taking the necessary precautions and on bond being furnished for the fiscal duties, permit vessels directly proceeding from abroad to enter secondary ports or creeks open to commerce, and even to call at points not open to commerce, when such calls are made for the purpose of discharging machines destined to the development of industry.

Art. 10. The Government may, when circumstances require it, close secondary ports or creeks open to commerce, or open new ports or creeks and, in the latter case, establish the necessary customs service.

Art. 11. Owing to the special conditions existing at the secondary ports of Túmbez, Puno, and Leticia (river port), vessels directly proceeding from abroad shall be permitted to enter said ports and to clear the goods destined to them, provided that the provisions of the commercial regulations and the laws in force be complied with.

Art. 12. The owner or consignee of goods exported or shipped coastwise from secondary ports or creeks open to commerce must previously furnish bond or guarantee to the custom-house of the second or third class assuring the payment, at the custom-house of the first class, of the duties and other expenses incurred.

These bonds shall be immediately transmitted to the custom-house of the first class and the duties due must be paid within three days. In default of payment within this time, the duties shall be recovered in the courts.

Art. 13. The anchorage due established by article 6 of the law of November 4, 1886, applicable to merchant vessels, shall be collected on and after February 1, 1895, at the rate of 40 centavos of a sol per ton register for foreign steamships not having a fixed route or itinerary; 20 centavos of a sol per ton register for foreign merchant vessels, sailing or steam, having a fixed route, and 10 centavos of a sol per ton register for national vessels.

Art. 14. Repealed by Executive decision of May 17, 1895.[1]

[1] Whereas article 14 of the Executive decree of January 9 of the present year has modified in a manner onerous to commerce the provisions of article 6 of the law of November 4, 1886, relative to the collection of an anchorage due established by said law, the following is decreed:

1. Article 14 of the Executive decree of January 9, 1895, is repealed.
2. The anchorage due shall, in the future, be collected conformably to article 6 of the law of November 4, 1886, which is maintained in force.

Lima, May 17, 1895.

National vessels of less than 200 tons register, war vessels, vessels entering a port in distress or to take orders, and whalers, shall be exempt from this impost.

ART. 15. Steamships, national or foreign, destined exclusively to the coasting trade, which remain inside of the territorial waters and have a fixed route, as well as sailing vessels of less than 50 tons register, shall be exempt from all fiscal imposts, whatever be their nature.

ART. 16. The present decree modifies the laws of December 19, 1862; December 2, 1874, and May 29, 1879, as well as article 6 of the law of November 4, 1886, and all other contrary provisions.

The minister of state is intrusted with the execution, publication, and promulgation of the present decree, which shall be submitted to the legislature at its first session.

Done at Lima, palace of the Government, January 9, 1895.

SUPPLEMENTS TO PERUVIAN TARIFF.

SUPPLEMENT OF NOVEMBER, 1896.

Law of November 27, 1895, repealing the law of February 4, 1879, establishing a duty applicable to the movement of packages on their exportation and importation.

[El Peruano No. 72, of December 9, 1895.]

SOLE ARTICLE. The law of February 4, 1879, establishing a tax on the movement of packages, is repealed.

1. PERUVIAN CONSULAR REGULATIONS.

Decree of December 30, 1895, modifying and repealing certain provisions of the consular regulations.

[El Peruano No. 3, of January 13, 1896.]

ART. 1. The following articles of the consular regulations are completed or modified.

ART. 123. Any captain or supercargo of a vessel, of whatever nationality, loading in a foreign port goods destined to Peru, must present to the consular officer a detailed statement (sobordo) or manifest, signed in four copies, intended for each port of destination and containing, in an orderly and clear manner, the following particulars:

1. The kind, nationality, name, and tonnage of the vessel.
2. The place from whence the ship came and the Peruvian port to which bound.
3. The name of the freighter, that of the consignors and consignees of the goods, or the statement to the effect that the bill of lading is to order.
4. The marks and numbers appearing on the packages, the nature and gross weight of same, and the measurement of each shipper's consignment.
5. The number of packages composing the consignment of each shipper and the total of those included in the manifest.

Digitized by Google

ART. 124. Whosoever wishes to ship goods in destination of Peruvian ports must present to the consular officer an invoice in quadruplicate, setting forth the following particulars:

1. Name of the shipper, port of shipment, that of consignee or, if the bill of lading is to order, the port of destination, and the name of the ship.

2. The marks, numbers, and quantity of packages, their kind, the gross weight of each package, the net weight of the goods contained in each package, including, when necessary, the interior packages, the measurement of each package in centimeters, the nature, kind, quantity, and denomination of goods contained in every package, the value and origin of the same.

The quantities must be stated in kilograms, meters, dozen, gross, etc., according to the provisions of the evaluation tariff, and for this purpose consuls must furnish merchants with all the necessary information.

ART. 125. At the foot of every invoice and above the signature the interested party must affirm under oath or on his honor that the declaration is exact. In fact, consular invoices are legal evidence in all judgments and contestations of any kinds.

ART. 129. To confirm the accuracy of statements contained in invoices the shippers can not be dispensed from the obligation to furnish to the consular officer the original commercial invoices to substantiate their affirmations.

ART. 132. When in any port whatsoever, goods shipped in destination of Peru must be transshipped in another foreign port, the respective invoices and a special detailed declaration (sobordo) in five copies for each Peruvian port must be presented to the consul. These documents must give the place where the transshipment is to be effected and designate, when possible, the name of the vessel on which the goods are to be transshipped, or at least the announced date of its departure.

The fifth copy of the detailed declaration (sobordo) is exacted so that the master of the vessel conveying the goods can receive two copies instead of one, with a view to complying with the following established provisions:

The consul at the port of transshipment shall certify whether the operation was effected conformably to the regulations by affixing his visa on the two copies of every detailed declaration of goods to be transshipped issued by the consulate of origin.

One copy of the above-mentioned detailed declarations shall be remitted to and must be kept by the master of the vessel, to be presented by him to the competent customs; the second copy shall be retained by the consul, to be transmitted by him to the minister of foreign affairs together with the other documents relative to vessels and with a view of regularly proving the transshipment, as prescribed by the second paragraph of article 135 of the present regulations.

ART. 138 (§ 3). Goods, whether exempt from duty or dutiable, for which no certified invoices are produced or which are not produced in conformity with the provisions of article 124 shall be subject to a fine of 25 per cent of their value according to the tariff, without prejudice to the responsibility of consular officers mentioned in article 144.

Should invoices not be produced, either because miscarried by the post-office or owing to any other duly proved reason of "force majeure," customs administrators may grant to importers an equitable delay for their presentation on bond deemed sufficient being given for an amount equivalent to 25 per cent of the fine.

ART. 144. Every document certified to by consuls which is not in the prescribed form and which does not contain the required statements shall involve such officers in a fine equal to the amount of consular fees to be collected for the document, unless the irregularity be accounted for in the visa as stipulated in article 126.

CONSULAR FEES.

| | | Soles. |
|---|---|---|
| ART. 10. | For a general power of attorney | 10.00 |
| ART. 11. | For a special power of attorney, etc. ... per document | 8.00 |
| ART. 46. | (The second part of this article relative to the reduction of fees in Pacific ports is repealed.) | |
| ART. 47. | For the visa of five copies of the detailed declaration or various special declarations for shipments to be transshipped in destination of Peru in another foreign port ... fixed total | 5.00 |
| ART. 48. | For the visa of two copies of every detailed declaration which must be presented, conformably to article 132, by masters of vessels having received transshipped goods ... per visa | .50 |
| ART. 49. | For issuing or certifying bills of health of all vessels conveying or taking on board goods destined to Peru ... fixed total | 3.00 |
| ART. 53. | For the visa of every invoice in quadruplicate ... fee ad valorem, per cent | 1 |
| ART. 59. | For a landing certificate of goods, etc., and for the legalization of signatures of Peruvian or foreign authorities ... fixed fee | 5.00 |

ART. 168. The maritime authorities in ports of the republic shall exact from masters of merchant vessels the production of their bills of health issued or viséed by the Peruvian consuls at the port of departure and at all the ports where the vessel called; should this formality not have been complied with, the fee leviable for every omitted visé shall be collected in addition to a surtax equal to the amount of such fees, collected for the benefit of the treasury, without prejudice to the civil or penal responsibility which might be incurred by said masters.

The maritime authorities in question shall, hierarchically, inform the minister for foreign affairs of the application of the preceding article; they shall deduct from such collections the 4 per cent to which, in virtue of the decree of January 10, 1889, they are entitled, and when depositing such receipts in the general treasury they must mention that the receipts proceed from consular fees.

ART. 169. Should, in default of consular officers of Peru, a master of a vessel not have his manifest of the cargo viséed in the foreign port of departure, he may comply with this formality in the first port of call on paying in the latter port the fees which he would have paid in the port of departure plus one-half of such fees to which, as prescribed, the consul affixing the visé is entitled.

* * * * * * *

ART. 2. Articles 59, 60, 188, 189, 190, 191, 193, 196, and the entire Chapter XIX are repealed.

ART. 3. The present decree shall enter into force on March 1, 1896.

2. CONSUMPTION DUTIES ON ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES.

Law of January 18, 1896, fixing consumption duties applicable to alcoholic beverages of national production or imported from abroad.

[El Peruano No. 8, of January 28, 1896.]

ART. 1. Consumption duties on alcohol, wine, and beer of national production shall be collected according to the following tariff:

| | Soles per liter. |
|---|---|
| Brandy, grape | 0.03 |
| Alcohol: | |
| Of a strength of 20° Cartier or less | .04 |
| More than 20° and up to 25° | .05½ |
| More than 25° and up to 30° | .07½ |
| More than 30° and up to 35° | .11 |
| More than 35° | .15 |
| Rum rendered unfit for a beverage | .01½ |
| Wine of the country, of all kinds | .01½ |
| Beer of the country | .01½ |

ART. 2. Beer, wine, and liqueurs imported from abroad shall be liable to the following consumption duties:

| | Soles per liter. |
|---|---|
| Beer, foreign | 0.07 |
| Absinthe, anisette, cognac, kirsch, rum, whisky, and other alcoholic beverages | .15 |
| Champagne and other sparkling wines, with the exception of Asti wine | .40 |
| Wines, red or white, Burgundy, Cyprus, Sherry, Madeira, Port, Cereza, Frontignan, Pajarete, Malmsey, Muscatel, Pedro Jimenez, Peralta, and other generous wines, including Asti and Rhine wines | .22 |
| Wines, red or white, Claret, Carlón, Catalogne, Priorato, San Vicente, Marsala, and the like. | .15 |

ART. 3. Beverages imported from abroad must pay the duty at the time of clearance from the maritime or river custom-houses, and their importation by land is prohibited.

Those of national production shall pay the duty at the place of production or of consumption at the option of the owners, and custom-houses, when relating to goods imported by sea and markets of consumption for products entered by land, shall, as hitherto, be considered as places of consumption.

ART. 4. The Government may collect the duty by taking for a basis the weight corresponding to the volume when, after examination, it deems this more equitable. It may likewise, when more practicable, substitute the centesimal alcoholometer to Cartier's alcoholometer.

ART. 5. The manipulations made in the country with a view of increasing or decreasing the alcoholic strength of a liquid having paid the duty stipulated in article 1, or to ameliorate or rectify liquids (such as, for example, the conversion of alcohol of 40° into spirits known under the name of rum, brandy, and vice versa), shall be subject to no new consumption duty.

The beverages enumerated in article 2, imitated in the country, shall be liable, even when consumption duty has been paid on raw materials entering into their composition, to a surtax equal to one-half of the duty stipulated in the above-mentioned article 2, should it be established on the part of the manufacturer or seller that the product is of national manufacture. The entire duty shall again be collected when the manufacturer conceals the nature of his goods or attempts to sell the same as being of foreign production.

ART. 6. Manufactured wines not proceeding from the fermentation of fresh grapes shall be liable to double the duty levied on natural wines.

ART. 7. The present law shall enter into force on the day when the Government begins the collection of imposts.

ART. 8. All general or special laws contrary to this law are repealed.

3. CONSUMPTION TAX ON TOBACCO.

[Law of January 18, 1896.]

ART. 2. A consumption duty shall be collected on all kinds of tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes according to the following tariff:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Tobacco of national production, in the leaf, raw, in packets | kilogram, net | 0.25 |
| 2. Tobacco of Mexico and Central America | do | .40 |
| 3. Tobacco of contiguous regions, in the leaf, raw, in packets | do | .35 |
| 4. Tobacco, foreign, of any other origin, in the leaf, raw, in packets | do | .60 |
| 5. Tobacco, foreign, chewing or snuff | do | 1.50 |
| 6. Tobacco, foreign, cut or chopped, or in packets, ready for consumption | do | 1.50 |
| 7. Tobacco, foreign, cut or chopped, in bulk, which must be further prepared in the country | kilogram, net | .70 |
| 8. Cigarettes without paper (cigarillos puros), of any foreign origin, in boxes or in bulk, kilogram, net | | 2.00 |
| 9. Cigarettes without paper, manufactured in the country, of tobacco of any origin, in boxes or in bulk | kilogram, net | 1.50 |
| 10. Cigarettes manufactured abroad, of whatever origin, in boxes, packets, or loose, per packet not containing more than 24 cigarettes, or per fraction of 24 cigarettes | | .06 |
| 11. Cigarettes manufactured in the country with foreign tobacco of any origin other than the contiguous zones, in boxes or packets not containing more than 24 cigarettes | packet | .05 |
| 12. Cigarettes manufactured in the country with national tobacco, pure or mixed with tobacco from Mexico, Central or South America, in packets not containing more than 12 cigarettes | packet | .01½ |
| The foregoing cigarettes, in packets of more than 12, but not exceeding 24 cigarettes, packet | | .03 |
| 13. Tobacco, national, cut or chopped, in packets, ready for consumption, per 50 grams or fraction of 50 grams | | .03 |

ART. 3. As soon as the Government is authorized to collect the aforesaid impost the existing stock of unmanufactured tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes shall be subject to the consumption surtax prescribed in article 2, and the amounts collected in excess shall not be refunded.

ART. 4. In case of exportation abroad of tobacco of all kinds, manufactured in the country into cigars, cigarettes, snuff, cut or chopped tobacco, the exporter shall, after verification of the contents of the packages and after ascertaining that the exportation has really been effected, be entitled to a drawback of the total amount of the consumption duties paid on the raw tobacco as if of national origin—i. e., 25 centavos per kilogram net. This drawback shall not be granted when the exported articles are manufactured by machinery.

ART. 5. The Government shall prescribe regulations to insure the regular observance of the present law, and it shall grant all privileges compatible with the interests of the treasury to producers, importers, manufacturers, merchants, and dealers to facilitate the importation and conveyance of tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes subject to duty, in such manner that the supervision does not impede their operations.

ART. 6. The laws of November 4, 1886, and of November 18, 1892, as well as all provisions contrary to the present law, are repealed.

Lima, January 25, 1896.

4. SALT MONOPOLY.

[El Peruano No. 10, of July 25, 1896.]

The Government having decided to establish a monopoly on salt, a decree dated July 18, 1896, maintains the prohibition to export salt from the territory of the Republic by any person other than the State, and likewise prohibits, from the same date, the importation of salt.

SUPPLEMENT OF APRIL, 1899.

I. EXTRACT FROM THE LAW OF DECEMBER 31, 1898, RELATIVE TO CONSUMPTION DUTIES ON ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES OF ALL KINDS.

[El Peruano of January 18, 1899.]

In virtue of articles 1 and 2 of the aforesaid law, the under-mentioned alcoholic beverages proceeding from abroad (the importation of these beverages by land is

ART. 3. The importation of orchal and its derivatives is prohibited, and double the duty leviable on drugs shall be collected for coloring materials employed in the manufacture of wines and alimentary pastes.

The importation of articles deemed noxious to public health by the council of hygiene is likewise prohibited.

ART. 4. The value of general products and goods shall be estimated by a board composed of the director-general of customs, as president, of the inspector, the examiners, of an equal number of merchants, and of two manufacturers selected by the minister of finance amongst those licensed and exercising their business, and by taking for a basis the value of the goods in the warehouse.

The evaluation tariffs must be submitted to the approbation of the executive and shall enter into force on January 1 of every year. The tariff of 1888 shall, however, exceptionally, be applicable to all goods which are not subject to a specific duty in virtue of the present tariff.

ART. 5. Goods not enumerated in the evaluation tariff shall be dutiable according to the declared value, and the customs may, after forty-eight hours from the time of examination, retain for account of the State all goods the declared value of which it deems insufficient, by paying immediately to the interested party the declared value, plus 10 per cent, in notes payable at ninety days or sooner, if the interested party, exacting his right, should desire to use said notes for the payment of customs duties.

ART. 6. In prosecutions for contraband those who have denounced or those who have effected the seizure shall be considered as a party both for bringing suit and for obtaining judgments.

In proceedings of this kind, even when the articles causing the same have been concealed, when the fact of contraband is absolutely demonstrated by irrefragable evidence other than the seizure of the goods, owing to their concealment, the transgressors shall be civilly and criminally responsible conformably to the laws in force.

ART. 7. The present law shall enter into force fifteen days after its promulgation, and for goods imported on steam or sailing vessels already on their voyage it shall be applicable after forty-five and ninety days, respectively.

ART. 8. In the regulations for the application of the present law the executive shall specify the wines in casks which must be considered as fine wines.

REGLEMENTARY DECREE TO THE LAW OF JANUARY 5, 1888.

In execution of the customs law promulgated January 5 of the present year the executive approves and decrees:

ART. 1. The said law shall enter in force on January 21 of the present year for goods found in the ports or warehouses of the Republic, and, respectively, on February 20 and April 5 next for goods on their voyage on steam or sailing vessels.

Shall be considered as vessels on their voyage those which have left port before the 6th instant, and the date of departure shall result from the manifest of the cargo duly viséed by the consular officers of the Republic.

ART. 2. The evaluation tariff at present in force shall continue to be applicable during the year 1888, except for articles subject to specific duties. The notes, tare allowances, and reductions contained therein, excepting for kerosene, which will enjoy a reduction of 3 per cent for waste, shall remain in force.

ART. 3. For liquids in bottles shall be considered as ordinary bottles those of a capacity of from 51 centiliters to 1 liter; bottles containing of from 26 to 50 centiliters shall be considered as half-bottles, and those containing up to 25 centiliters as quarter-bottles.

ART. 4. Rhine, port, sherry, Ajerezado, muscatel, and burgundy wines, in casks, shall be classed as fine wines.

ART. 5. The importation of orchal and its derivatives being prohibited by article 3 of the law, the direction-general of customs reserves the right to indicate which are the derivatives of orchal.

ART. 6. It will likewise indicate what are the coloring materials destined for the manufacture of wine or alimentary pastes, which, according to law, must pay double the duty leviable on drugs.[1]

ART. 7. The council of public hygiene shall determine what materials are noxious to health and the importation of which is prohibited.

ART. 8. Goods not enumerated in the evaluation tariff shall be dutiable according to their value in the warehouse. This value must be declared in the permit.

---

[1] By decision of the director-general of customs, dated January 23, 1888, the materials in question are at present the following: Geranium, ammoniacal cochineal, carmine, elder; elderberries, privet-berries, barberries, and maquis; myrtle, phytolacca; logwood, Brazil or Fernambuco wood; mulberries; alcoholic extracts of vegetable dyestuffs; the same in a solid state (pasta); caramel; wine lees, boiled (arropes); aniline and its derivatives; infusions of nuts and gallnuts.

CUSTOMS TREATMENT OF NAPKINS.

[Notice from the direction-general of customs, dated November 30, 1893.]

The following shall be considered as napkins of linen and cotton:

1. Napkins in the manufacture of which cotton enters in a proportion of at least 50 per cent.

2. Those in which the cotton yarn is interwoven through the entire body of the tissue.

3. In default of either of the above stipulated conditions, the napkins in question must be declared, taxed, and cleared as of pure linen and shall, consequently, be classed in the corresponding tariff numbers.

IMPORTERS.

Additional license duties. (Law of January 11, 1896.)

ART. 1. After the promulgation of the present law and for a period of two years all importing merchants must pay an additional license duty (patente) of 2½ per cent on the total value of their importations.[2]

By importing merchants shall, for the purposes of this law, be understood any person introducing foreign goods or articles of any kind into the country.

ART. 2. This tax shall be collected fortnightly by the direction general of direct taxes, or by the departmental revenue officers, who, at the time of collecting the tax, must be supplied by the direction general of customs or revenue with a complete list of the goods imported during the past fortnight, with special designation of each importer.

Extract from the decree of January 11, 1896, enacting executory regulations for the law on additional license duties.

ART. 1. The extraordinary additional tax of 2½ per cent to which the importers are subject on the total value of their goods destined to consumption and cleared through the customs shall only be collected on goods the clearance of which has been requested on and after the 13th instant.

The value of the goods shall be established by taking for a basis the evaluation tariff in force.

ART. 2. The direction general of customs shall keep for every importer a special account of the goods he imports for consumption and shall remit every fortnight to the direction general of direct taxes a detailed statement of the official value of the imported goods, with special designation of the importers or customs brokers.

ART. 3. The additional duty stipulated in the foregoing article 1 must be paid by the importers to the direction general of direct taxes within ten days following each fortnight. Should he fail to comply with this injunction, the direction general of direct taxes shall inform the customs, who, without other formality, shall refuse any clearance to the defaulting importer, without prejudice to any legal recourse which may be adopted for securing the collection of this duty.

ART. 4. Importers who, not being registered as customs brokers, clear goods by previously depositing the duties must, together with such duties, likewise pay the additional license tax corresponding to the value of the shipment.

MANUFACTURE OF PAPER.

Law of March 9, 1896, granting free entry to pulp of vegetable fibers.

ART. 1. After the promulgation of the present law pulp of vegetable fibers destined to the manufacture of fine paper shall be admitted free of duty.

Additional import tax in Uruguay.—Consul Swalm writes from Montevideo July 27, 1898:

Beginning with August 1 an additional permanent tax of 2½ per cent on all imports into Uruguay is again in force. The proceeds are at first to be applied to the payment of outstanding treasury certificates, which are ten months behind, and will afterwards be devoted to the proposed harbor improvements. The tax is of especial significance to Americans interested in the exportation of lumber and refined oil, upon which the duty is already very heavy.

Supplies here are very light, shipments having been retarded on account of the war with Spain.

EXPORTATION.

LAW OF OCTOBER 4, 1890, ESTABLISHING SPECIFIC EXPORT DUTIES AND ADDITIONAL IMPORT DUTIES.

ART. 1. After the promulgation of the present law all goods imported from abroad for consumption shall pay an additional duty of 5 per cent on the evaluation tariff in force. Goods exempt from duty[1] and those enumerated in paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 of article 1 of the law of January 5, 1888, are excepted.

ART. 2. After the same date the national products enumerated below shall pay the following specific export duties:

|---|---|---|
| Wool of all kinds | 100 kilograms | $1.30 |
| Skins with the wool | do | .80 |
| Bristles and horsehair | do | 1.70 |
| Grease, tallow, and neat's-foot and caballine oils | do | .50 |
| Beef, jerked | do | .40 |
| Meat and tongues, preserved | do | 1.00 |
| Claws (garras) | do | .25 |
| Ashes and bone | 1,000 kilograms | .60 |
| Guano | do | .60 |
| Hides and skins: | | |
| Ox— | | |
| Salted | each | .25 |
| Dried | do | .12 |
| Horse— | | |

| Dried | do | .06 |
| Calf, and of stillborn calves[1] | 100 kilograms | 1.00 |
| Seal | each | .16 |
| Horns | thousand | 2.50 |
| Meat extract | kilogram | .10 |

DECREE OF OCTOBER 4, 1890, ENACTING REGULATIONS TO THE LAW PROMULGATED ON THE SAME DATE.

ART. 1. The direction general of customs shall be intrusted with the collection of the additional duty of 5 per cent established in virtue of the law of October 4, 1890; this collection must be entered under a special heading of receipts.

ART. 2. The clearance permits or bulletins for goods withdrawn from customs warehouses shall be made out without the surtax of 5 per cent.

Those concerning goods in course of clearance, but not withdrawn from the warehouses, shall be considered as null.

Landing permits for customs clearance or direct shipment which are being effected, but not yet approved by the controllers, shall likewise be annulled.

For bulletins entirely or partly approved by the controllers the 5 per cent shall be applied to that part of the goods which has not yet been approved, and the other shall be subject to the tax and to the delivery of a new permit.

ART. 3. Permits relative to the exportation of products of the country the shipment of which has been effected with the assistance of the controllers shall be exempt from the additional duties established by the present law.

Permits for products which have not yet been shipped shall be considered as null.

Permits for goods, a part of which has been shipped, shall be exempt from the export surtax for the part shipped, but the remainder of the unshipped goods shall be liable to the surtax and the interested parties must obtain new permits.

ART. 4. The regulations and other decisions relative to the exportation of products of the country in force prior to the promulgation of the law of January 30, 1888, and which are not expressly repealed, are maintained in force.

LAW OF JANUARY 30, 1888, EXEMPTING FROM EXPORT DUTIES GOODS OF NATIONAL PRODUCTION OR MANUFACTURE.

ART. 1. After the promulgation of the present law national products, fruits, and articles manufactured in the country shall be exempt from export duty.

ART. 2. Are excepted: Stone, rough or unwrought, sand, and live cattle, which are not exempt in virtue of article 2 of the law of August 24, 1887.

ART. 3. All contrary dispositions are hereby repealed.

DECREE OF FEBRUARY 1, 1892, REDUCING THE EVALUATIONS FOR LIVE CATTLE, FOR THE APPLICATION OF EXPORT DUTIES.

ART. 1. Until otherwise ordered the duty of 8 per cent applicable, in virtue of the legislation in force, to live cattle exported by the land frontiers of the Republic, shall be collected on the following bases:

Alphabetical list of the principal goods enumerated in the tariff.

As stipulated in the law of October 14, 1890 (see p. —), all goods are, in addition to the import duties established in the tariff, subject to a surtax of 5 per cent and according to decree which went into force on August 1, 1898, to 2½ per cent more. Consequently goods dutiable according to the tariff at the rate of 31 per cent ad valorem shall pay 37½ per cent of said value, and those inscribed at the rate of 48 per cent shall pay 57½ per cent, etc.

[Products exempt from the surtax in question are marked with an asterisk (*) in the present table.]

The following tariff went into effect on September 1, 1899:

Foreign merchandise entered through the custom-houses of the Republic is divided into nine classes, as follows:

| Class. | Duty, per kilogram (2.2046 pounds). | |
|---|---|---|
| | Bolivars. | Equivalent in United States currency. |
| First | 0.02 | $0.00386 |
| Second | .12½ | .0241 |
| Third | .30 | .0579 |
| Fourth | .90 | .1737 |
| Fifth | 1.50 | .2895 |
| Sixth | 3.00 | .579 |
| Seventh | 6.00 | 1.158 |
| Eighth | 12.00 | 2.316 |
| Ninth | 24.00 | 4.632 |

Duties specified in this tariff are to be collected on the gross weight.

First Class.

[2 centavos (0.00386 of a cent) per kilogram (2.2046 pounds).]

[1] Consul Plumacher transmits from Maracaibo, December 3, 1898, translation of a decision of the treasury department of Venezuela, as follows:

"In order to avoid difficulties and controversies at the custom-houses of the Republic in the dispatch and classification of colored cotton goods manufactured with colored threads, or with white and colored threads, plain or striped lines, etc. (fancy or not), which are in many cases considered by the examiners as mixed colored cotton and linen goods belonging to the sixth class, when they are sent as ordinary colored prints which pertain to the fifth class, therefore making them subject to confiscation according to law, the President of the Republic has decided: That when said cotton goods imported contain only thirteen threads in a square of 5 millimeters they should be considered as ordinary cotton prints belonging to the fifth class; and when the same square of 5 millimeters contains more than thirteen rows of thread they shall be considered as mixed cotton and linen goods of the sixth class.

"Importers of ordinary cotton prints are obliged to specify in their consular declaration that said prints do not contain over thirteen rows of thread, in warp or woof, to the square of 5 millimeters.

"Noncompliance to this formality will be sufficient to classify the goods as belonging to the sixth class from the 1st of January next."

PROHIBITED ARTICLES.

The importation of the following articles is prohibited:
Cocoa oil.
Rum made from sugar cane.

Digitized by Google

Starch.
Indigo blue.
Cocoa.
Coffee.
Molasses, sugar honey, bee honey.
Salted jerked beef.
Salt.
Dynamite.
Sarsaparilla root.
Counterfeit gold and silver money.
Apparatus for making money, not ordered by the Government.
Ready-made shoes and dressed skins made in shoes.
Matches of all kinds.

When the executive shall deem it necessary to allow any prohibited article to be entered through the custom-houses of the Republic, he shall fix the duty on said article and report it to the congress at its next session.

The executive shall have the power to prohibit the importation of all or any pieces of all kinds of ready-made clothing, of hats of all classes, caps, helmets, and trimmed caps through those custom-houses of the Republic in whose jurisdiction such industries or trades may have acquired the necessary extension and development for the supply of said articles without detriment to the consumers.

IMPORTS OF MUNITIONS OF WAR.

For the importation through the custom-houses of the Republic of dutiable firearms, gunpowder, bullets, cartridges, fulminate caps, flint stones, saltpeter, and any explosive material not specified in this law, a permission or order must be procured from the Government.

Arms of precision and all war material exclusively for armories can only be imported by the Government.

DETERMINING DUTIES.

In determining duties the material of which an article is composed is not taken into consideration, but the classification that has been made of it; e. g., trusses, syringes, clyster pumps, children's toys, masks, eyeglasses, card cases, and other specified articles pay the duty according to the classification that has been given them, regardless of the material of which they are made, excepting only when they contain any gold and silver, or are themselves of gold or silver, when they fall under the eighth class.

Samples.—The packages containing samples of cloth in small pieces, and also samples of wall paper, which weigh more than 25 kilograms, will pay the duty of the third class on the excess over 25 kilograms.

Unassigned articles.—Whenever merchandise or other dutiable articles are imported, which are not known in the country, or are not included in this tariff law, nor in subsequent decisions of the ministry of finance, the importers can so state this fact in their manifests (consular declarations), and apply to the Government by means of an official communication, accompanied by a report from the custom-house of the port of entry, with a sample of the article, in order that it may be classified.

Mining machinery.—The machines, fixings, and other accessories for the working of mines are only exempt from duty once for each mining company, and the extra pieces for replacing those that have already been imported free of duty will not be exempt from duty.

The machines and apparatus specified under Nos. 6, 21, 22, and 23, as well as artistic objects to be used as monuments, will not be passed through the custom-house without a permit from the ministry of finance; to obtain this permit the owner in each case must petition the ministry of fomento for the free entry of said articles, accompanied by a report from the custom-house of the port of entry.

All unused foreign articles brought in by passengers from foreign countries in their baggage will pay an additional duty of 20 per cent over the duties prescribed by this tariff law.

DIMINUTION OR SUPPRESSION OF DUTIES.

The executive is hereby authorized to diminish and suppress duties on absolutely necessary articles of food only when unforeseen circumstances make it necessary, informing congress of any measure taken in this respect.

Articles imported into the country as disconnected parts of a whole, whether in one single package or in separate packages, shall pay the duty of the class to which the article belongs when put together.
